Downloadable from TreasureInTheBible.com/2016WholeBibleReadingPlan.pdf

This plan is six days a week, four to five chapters per day (occasionally fewer). All the New Testament passages relate in some way to the Old Testament reading of the day. Sometimes they include direct quotes, other times they provide application, depth, or contrast.

You can just explore and enjoy each passage for itself, or look for how the daily passages relate to each other.

You'll already finish reading every verse of the Bible once by December 7th.

On Sundays no reading is assigned, so you can use that day to catch up or reflect, pray, ponder and connect with other readers to share favorite passages or insights from the week. Ask a friend or two to read along with you in 2016 so you can keep each other accountable to finish! A weekly planned check-in can help to achieve your goal.

Readings from December 8th onwards are brief meditation verses concerning prophecies and their fulfilment by Christ, which are duplicates from earlier in the year. This makes the plan more realistic for the busy end-of-year holiday time.

If you are new to the Bible or pressed for time, try just reading one of the passages listed for each day (it's probably easier to read the New Testament in a more linear order the first time you want to read the whole Bible - check treasureinthebible.com for other reading plans).

"Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life." Jn 6:68
